Adult sized Unisex Fun Bike with a powerful, silent motor

Compact, fun and affordable the PowaBlade brings the concept of electric cycling to all. The PowaBlade's 12 inch wheels and sturdy design make this model ideal for both children and adults alike. Whether it is used for fun in the garden or as an alternative mode of transport, the PowaBlade is up to the job..

A large lead acid battery within the fun styled exterior provides the power for this bicycle giving you a 12 mile range when using it in twist and go mode. The pedals allow the bike to be used in a more conventional way.

With a adjustable saddle height of 83 - 91cm the PowaBlade brings fun and freedom across the board.
